Women Suffer Agonies from Diseased Kidneys

And Most Women Do This Not Knowing the Real Cause of their Condition

These poor, suffering women have been led to believe that their misery of mind and body is entirely due to "ills of their sex." Usually the kidneys and bladder are responsible—or largely so. And in such cases, the kidneys and bladder are the organs, that need and must have attention.

These torturing, enervating sick headaches, dragging pains in back, groin and limbs, bloating and swelling of the extremities, extreme nervousness or hysteria, listlessness and constant tired, worn-out feeling—are almost certain symptoms of diseased and diseased kidneys, bladder and liver.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills have, in thousands of cases, been demonstrated as remarkably beneficial in all such conditions of female organism—affording the most prompt relief and permanent benefit.

As an illustration of what these pills will do, Mrs. P. M. Bray of Columbus, Ga., writes that she was very ill with kidney trouble, and that she is now well—and that these pills are what cured her.

They are very pleasant to take, and can in no case, produce any deleterious effects upon the system—as syrups, alcoholic, liquid preparations are apt to do.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill., want every man and woman who have the least suspicion that they are afflicted with kidney and bladder diseases to at once write them, and a trial box of these pills will be sent free by return mail post-paid. Do it to-day.

JOHN E. JACKSON, TAZEWELL, VA

PROFFITT TO BE 'TAKEN CARE OF'

Washington D., C. Feb. 26.—Green Proffitt, of Floyd, who lost out in his fight for the marshalship of the Western District, is to be "taken care of" with an appointment to the Internal Revenue service.

The appointment of S. Brown Allen removed from the marshalship and made postmaster of Staunton, will be sent to the Senate Monday, unless the President changes his mind. The agreement by which Fulwiler was given Allen's place and Allen is to get Fulwiler's place is not specially satisfactory to Allen, since his old place paid $4,000, and the postmastership pays only about $2,800.

There is reason to believe that pressure from Washington was largely responsible for the agreement, since it is said not to be especially satisfactory to Mr. Slomp. Postmaster-General Hitchcock, the dispenser for the administration, is said to have suggested the deal, being a great friend of Fulwiler.

There is reason to believe the deal, taken in connection with other recent changes in Federal officials in Virginia, means that Hitchcock is to control the Virginia delegation in the Republican National Convention in 1912. This means it will be for whomever Mr. Hitchcock may say. In other words, he can have the delegation to trade on.

The Generous Florist

She was the lady of his choice and he took no pains to conceal it.

"I'll bet you don't know what day tomorrow is," she announced suddenly.

"Why, Tuesday of course," he answered in a puzzled tone.

"Oh, I don't mean that kind of a day. I knew you didn't know."

"I don't know. What do you mean?" he replied helplessly.

"Well, I guess I'll have to tell you." She pretended she was hurt.

"It will be my birthday."

"Congratulations, Alice. Congratulations," he exclaimed enthusiastically. "And how old may—"

"That's for you to find out," she answered laughing.

"Well, I bet I know."

"You do?"

"Yes, and I'll tell you what I'll do. I'll send you a rose for every year of your life. How will that do?"

At the florist's he found the assistant unoccupied.

"Send Miss Casey eighteen of your best roses tomorrow morning. You know the address. Eighteen. Your best. Understand?" The boy understood.

Half an hour later the proprietor was looking over the order book.

"What did Mr. Graham order today?"

"Eighteen roses, sir," answered Willie.

"Eighteen? He's a pretty good customer. Throw in a dozen more."

Old Pete Blew First
An old dorky who lived some distance from town had a very sick mule. He drove into town to see the village veterinarian as to what to do for the mule. The doctor told him to get a pound of calomel and hollow glass tube and blow the calomel through the tube down the mule's throat.

About a week after that the dorky appeared in town looking very dejected and pale. He met the doctor on the street and said, "Say boss, I got the calomel and the tube and put the calomel in the tube," and just then the doctor asked him if he blew it down the throat of the mule and the dorky said, "No boss, old Pete he done blew first."

—Glen McVickrey.
